

Conor Gilligan Announces Recipient of ULI Baltimore Grand Prix Fund Raiser Event

Glen Burnie, Md. (Oct 11, 2011)---Conor Gilligan, vice president of Craftsmen Developers, LLC., a land development firm headquartered in Glen Burnie, today announced that the Living Classrooms Foundation has recently been awarded $1,000 by the Urban Land Institute Baltimore (ULI Baltimore).

According to Gilligan, the contribution is the result of proceeds from a hospitality event hosted by the ULI Baltimore each day of the Labor Day weekend Grand Prix race in downtown Baltimore. The fund raising event was organized by the Young Leader's Group of the ULI Baltimore where Gilligan is a member as well as co-chair of the event.

"This was the best of situations---a fun event at an outstanding venue to raise funds for a great organization doing important work," Gilligan said.

About Craftsmen Developers

Founded in 2008 by CEO Dennis Gilligan following 30 years in the real estate industry, the Glen Burnie, Md.-based Craftsmen Developers is a land development firm that acquires, develops and sells residential and commercial real estate properties in the Mid-Atlantic region and also provides consulting services to third-party clients. In the past 30 years, they have developed more than 3000 lots in 57 communities. The firm recently earned a National Home Builders Association Research Center 4-star Green Land Development Certification, the first on the East Coast, for its Wharton's Bluff townhome community located in Millsboro, Del. The firm operates with the principle that it can improve the environment by creating green neighborhoods. For more information visit www.craftsmendevolvers.com.