

Morgan Gilligan Named "Very Important Professional Under 40"

Glen Burnie, Md., (July 25, 2011)---Morgan C. Gilligan, vice president of marketing and business development for Craftsmen Developers, a land development firm headquartered in Glen Burnie, has been named a "Very Important Professional Under 40" by the Daily Record, a Baltimore-based business newspaper.

According to the newspaper, Gilligan, along with other recipients, were selected for their professional accomplishments and commitment to inspire change in the community before the age of 40.

The recipients will be honored at an event in late September.

Gilligan, who joined Craftsmen in late 2010 as the firm's first marketing and business development executive, has more than 15 years of marketing and development experience. Additionally, he serves on a variety of industry-related and civic boards and committees.

About Craftsmen Developers

Founded in 2008 by CEO Dennis Gilligan following 30 years in the real estate industry, the Glen Burnie, Md.-based Craftsmen Developers is a land development firm that acquires, develops and sells residential and commercial real estate properties in the Mid-Atlantic region and also provides consulting services to third-party clients. In the past 30 years, they have developed more than 3000 lots in 57 communities. The firm recently earned a National Home Builders Association Research Center 4-star Green Land Development Certification, the first on the East Coast, for its Wharton's Bluff townhome community located in Millsboro, Del. The firm operates with the principle that it can improve the environment by creating green neighborhoods. For more information visit www.craftsmendevolvers.com.

###