

Craftsmen Developers Supports Mission of NeighborSpace of Baltimore County, Inc.

Glen Burnie, Md., (November 10, 2011)---Craftsmen Developers, a land development firm headquartered in Glen Burnie, announces its support of the NeighborSpace of Baltimore County, Inc. mission of "protecting land to improve communities."

W. Dennis Gilligan, founder and CEO of Craftsmen said "we are excited to support the important work and vision of this Baltimore County organization that 'established neighborhoods will preserve their green open space, creating more attractive and sustainable communities.' We embrace a similar vision in the communities we have developed throughout the Mid-Atlantic region."

The land development firm earned a 4-star Green Land Certification from the National Association of Homebuilders (NAHB) Research Center for Wharton's Bluff, Parcel "B", Millsboro, Delaware, the first such certification on the East Coast and only the fourth nationwide.

Craftsmen will be applying for its second certification for a community it is developing in Anne Arundel County, Md.

About Craftsmen Developers

Founded in 2008 by CEO Dennis Gilligan following 30 years in the real estate industry, the Glen Burnie, Md.-based Craftsmen Developers is a land development firm that acquires, develops and sells residential and commercial real estate properties in the Mid-Atlantic region and also provides consulting services to third-party clients. In the past 30 years, they have developed more than 3000 lots in 57 communities. The firm recently earned a National Home Builders Association Research Center 4-star Green Land Development Certification, the first on the East Coast, for its Wharton's Bluff townhome community located in Millsboro, Del. The firm operates with the principle that it can improve the environment by creating green neighborhoods. For more information visit www.craftsmendevolvers.com.

###