

Craftsmen Developers Increases Sales Commission to Brokers/Agents for Wharton's Bluff Purchase Agreements

Glen Burnie, Md., (July 15, 2011)---Craftsmen Developers, a land development firm headquartered in Glen Burnie, announces a one per cent increase in sales commission to brokers/agents for purchase agreements signed by the end of September, 2011 for townhouses in its Wharton's Bluff Parcel "B" development, located in Millsboro, DE.

"We believe this additional one per cent in sales commission helps to recognize the extra effort that we know brokers and agents are spending to get their clients to the settlement table," said Morgan C. Gilligan, Craftsmen vice president of marketing and business development. "Wharton's Bluff is an exceptional townhouse community and one we know that the real estate community agrees has so much to offer a prospective resident."

The Wharton's Bluff community, with a total of 130 Ryan Homes townhomes when completed, is located on the banks of the Indian River and features amenities including walking trails, playground, community swimming pool and pool house, a gazebo and direct access to the water from a crabbing and fishing pier.

Craftsmen Developers earned a 4-star Green Land Certification from the National Association of Homebuilders (NAHB) Research Center for Wharton' Bluff, Parcel B", the first such certification on the East Coast and only the fourth nationwide.
